RELIEF FUND BEYOND THE $3,000 MARK.

Wheeling's Contribution to the Galveston Flood Sufferers Reached $3,029 Last Night.

WHEELING DOING MUCH BETTER

Than Many Cities of Far Greater Population—Saturday's Band Concert at Bridgeport.

The Galveston relief fund continues to grow, and has now gone beyond the $3,000 mark, which was believed to be fully as much as could be secured here. It now appears that the fund may reach $3,500, or even $4,000. The exact amount contributed in Wheeling up to last night was $3,029, as follows:

House & Herrmann Fund.....	$1,425 19
St. Joseph's Cathedral.....	200 00
St. Michael's church.....	14 00
Opera House band concert.....	1,349 00

A NEW CHURCH

Will Be the Outcome of the Factional Fight at the First United Presbyterian Church—Trustees Resign and One-Half of the Congregation Walk Out Last Night.

At a congregational meeting of the First United Presbyterian church last evening five of the trustees of the church resigned and after the resignation had been voted upon and accepted, fully one-half of the congregation arose and walked out. As stated in yesterday's Intelligencer, this faction of the church, at a meeting held Tuesday evening, appointed a committee of five to prepare a petition to the Wheeling presbytery, asking for the organization of the Second United Presbyterian church.

Elder J. M. Brown presided at last night's meeting. Samuel Parker arose and presented a paper containing the resignations of five trustees. He said they left church property approximating in value $25,000 and that they felt as they withdrew that they did not contribute that money to the congregation, but they gave only to the Lord. It was not their intention to hamper them in their work.

The following is a verbatim copy of the resignation, with the signatures attached:

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 19, 1900.

To the Members of the First United Presbyterian Church, Wheeling, W. Va.

We, the undersigned, hereby tender our resignation as trustees of your honorable body.

Fraternally yours,

JOHN BECKETT,
T. M. GARVIN,
J. L. SAWTELLE,
F. J. HARE,
S. P. PARKER.

Before voting Elder Brown called for nominations for chairman and secretary of the meeting. Dr. Petrie was elected chairman, and Herbert Nesbitt, secretary. Chairman Petrie asked the pleasure of the congregation on the resignations. Elder James McAdams was opposed to accepting and said the resignation was a very clear piece of work. Mr. Cowden thought in courtesy to them it was proper and right to accede to their request and accept the resignation. Prof. Stevenson said that at first thought he did not know how he would vote on that question. It was eminently proper that they accept the resignation and make provision for the vacancies. They couldn't do otherwise. A motion was made to accept and it was carried. Mr. McAdams casting the only dissenting vote.

At this juncture fully one-half of the congregation were then unanimously elected to fill the vacancies created by the resignation above mentioned: W. Nesbitt, W. S. McDonald, Dr. William Petrie, James V. Dickey and John McAdams. They then adjourned, being in session about one hour.

The congregation will meet October 17 to elect elders.

U. S. COURT OPENS TO-DAY.

The Grand Jury Will Not be Called Until Next Week, However.

The fall term of the United States district court, Judge Jackson on the bench, will convene in this city this morning. Not much business, however, will be transacted until next Monday, when the grand jury will be called. There are a number of important criminal cases up for trial at this term, and Assistant District Attorney Emmett Showalter, who came in last night, states that no less than seventy-five witnesses will be summoned.

Judge Jackson, Clerk Delbrugge, Marshal Thompson and Deputies Priddle and Randolph will arrive this morning from Parkersburg.

BICYCLE ICE TRIP.

Dawson to Skagway, Alaska, by Bicycle.

E. P. Leroy, a newspaper correspondent, was the first one to make the trip successfully from Dawson to Skagway, 550 miles, over the ice, on a bicycle. He was eight days on the way and encountered one of the heaviest snowstorms of the season. He comments on the universal fact that men in the Arctic climate have scurvy and stomach trouble because of poorly cooked food.

He says when he first went to Alaska he had a good stomach, but it finally gave out, and one day in his search for something that a man without an appetite could eat, he came across some packages of Grape-Nuts food. He knew of the food and its value and was willing to pay ¼ of an ounce of gold dust ($4.00) for one package.

He says: "I can assure you the satisfaction of getting something I could eat and digest without suffering was well worth the price. As soon as it had proven to be just what I wanted, I bought the whole lot, and from that day to this, Grape-Nuts food has constituted my chief article of diet."

"I find that Grape-Nuts is quickly picked up as soon as a new lot comes to camp. There is nothing known that gives the miner and frontiersman the strength, with so little volume, as Grape-Nuts food, and it is always ready for use, being perfectly cooked, and can be eaten dry or with a little cream, milk, or water, hot or cold, just as a man likes. I could not have taken any food that would have carried me through my long journey on the ice so well as Grape-Nuts."

RIVERSIDE ACCIDENT.

Ten Men Precipitated into a Ditch, One Receiving Injuries That Render Amputation of the Leg Necessary.

Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, while a gang of men were rolling a heavy iron elbow into position in a ditch at the Riverside, the scaffold upon which the pipe rested gave way, dropping it and the ten men down into the ditch. Francis Long had one of his legs caught beneath the pipe, crushing it at the knee. Homer Linabarger was struck in the head with a piece of timber, sustaining a slight fracture of the skull. William Barlow had an arm slightly bruised and the rest of the men escaped unhurt.

Long, who was the most seriously injured, was removed to the Emergency hospital, where it was found that his injuries were of such a nature as to render amputation necessary. The left leg was taken off above the knee. He was afterwards removed in the Wheeling ambulance to his home, out Bogg's run. It is not thought that Linabarger's injuries will develop into anything of a serious nature. The elbow weighed about 1,500 pounds.

South Side Accident.

About 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning, while Mrs. Schul, of Twenty-third street, and a party of four were driving a surrey across the street car track in front of a motor, on South Chapline street, one of the rear wheels broke, throwing the occupants to the street. Beyond a few bruises they all escaped uninjured.

GERMAN DAY

The Krieger-verein Leads Off With a Subscription of $100 to the Guarantee Fund.

The finance committee of "German Day" held a meeting at Beethoven hall last evening, Chairman A. Beltz presiding. Committees of various wards and adjoining cities made favorable reports. A committee of the German Kreutzverein, consisting of President Jacob Korn, Dr. Zimmer and F. Dittich, called to inform the finance committee that their society had just subscribed the sum of $100 to the guaranty fund. On motion of C. W. Bente, a vote of thanks was tendered the Kreutzverein and a committee, consisting of Messrs. H. Beir, Theo. Reller and Chairman Beltz, appointed to convey the same to the society. The committee adjourned to meet again at the same place next Tuesday evening.

This evening at 7 o'clock, the executive committee, and at 8 o'clock the general committee will meet at Beethoven hall, to decide upon the general plan of celebrating the day. General enthusiasm prevailed.

AMUSEMENTS.

For a unique and positively refreshing performance, Isham's "King Rastus" company certainly takes the lead and has set the pace for all other similar organizations. The novelty of presenting a semi-operative comedy by colored stars has proved a pleasing surprise and created a furore everywhere. The company, numbering thirty-five, is composed of such artists as Billy Kersands, Smart & Williams, Mallory Bros. & Brooks, S. H. Dudley and others. The production is carried complete, the scenic effects, costuming, etc., being described as complete. "King Rastus" holds court at the Opera House Monday and Tuesday, September 24-25, and will entertain all visitors right royally.

"A Rag Time Reception."

A long laugh is set in smiles to rag time music, is "A Rag Time Reception," the attraction at the Grand to-night, Friday and Saturday, presented by clever comedians, dashing soubrettes, grand prima donnas, and a large chorus of pretty girls, who can sing and dance and made the hours merry. George Totten Smith, who has become famous for his bright and witty vaudeville sketches, is the author. Mr. Hal King, the manager, has placed it before the public with one of the strongest companies ever seen in farce-comedy, having selected every member for their line of work, which embraces artists from grand and comic opera, vaudeville and dramatic, who appear incidental to the play in unique and novel specialties, which occur in a natural manner.

McCauley-Patton Company.

The McCauley-Patton Company will be the next attraction at the Grand Opera House, commencing Monday night, and presenting a repertoire of standard dramas at popular prices. This company appeared here before, and made a splendid impression upon patrons of the theatre. This year there are new plays in the repertoire, new faces in the company, and new vaudeville artists to present specialties between acts. The opening bill on Monday night will be the comedy-drama "Peaceful Valley," which was made famous by Sol Smith Russell. Mr. Patton will appear in the leading role. Other plays to be presented will be "The Minister's Son," "Royal Rags," "A Wasted Life," "Inside Truck," and "Just Before Dawn."

A Marvelous Bit of Magic.

In one of his new Oriental illusions, which will be presented in this city for the first time this season, during Magician Kellar's entertainment, he will illustrate the Hindoo theory of the reincarnation of souls. He will show in full light, upon an almost vacant stage, how easily he can materialize a beautiful, living woman from the air, simply by means of a Hindoo incantation, originally used, it is said, hundreds of years ago, by an old priest in one of the Hindoo temples. And the reincarnated being will walk and speak to the audience, to show that she is not an image or a reflection. All Kellar's new masterpieces and a host of novelties in small magic will be presented at the Opera House, September 26.

IT'S folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the night, itching piles. Doan's Ointment cures, quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 50 cents.
